

STAGE DEPOT PREMIUM POLARISING FILTER

Please remove the protective film from both sides of the Polarising Filter before use

Our Polarising Film is a linear polariser most commonly used in photography and film for reducing the glare from reflective or glossy materials.

By combining two Polarising Filters - one in front of the light source and another in front of the camera - optimal glare reduction can be achieved by rotating one of the Polarising Filters from 0° through 90°.

